2012 CJUR Cover Description

The design of this year's cover echoes the theme of its content: the transactions that occur between different elements of professional planning practice. Characterized by a diversity of forces—whether ecological, governmental, cultural, or market-based—these disparate elements are united by responsible and effective stakeholder consultation.

Designer Profile

Jeff Robson is an urban planner and graphic designer based out of Edmonton, Alberta. For more information, please visit www.jsrobson.com.

Publication of this journal is partially funded by the University of Winnipeg, The Canadian Institute of Planners, and the Association of Canadian University Planning Programs, but views expressed are the personal views of the author(s) and the University and the Institute accept no responsibility for them.
