AWARDS

About the CIP President's Award: Young Planner

In 2011, CIP created a second President's Award to specifically celebrate the leaders of tomorrow. This award recognizes a young planner for vision, leadership, and/or service to the profession.

The CIP President's Award: Young Planner recognizes the outstanding professional success and achievement of a young Canadian planner under the age of 35.

A nomination may be submitted by an employer, colleague, or CIP member. Nominees may not self-nominate.

The award is given annually to an individual by the current CIP President.

Eligible Candidates

Eligible candidates must be:

- under 35 years of age as of December 31, 2021; and
- members in good standing with the Institute (student, candidate or full member status) at the date of nomination submission and presentation of the award.

Submit a Nomination

Nominators are asked to submit a single PDF via email to board@cip-icu.ca.

Each submission should include the following documents included:

- a completed recreation of Submission Summary found on page 3 of the guidelines;
- a citation of no more than 100 words from the nominator explaining the young planner's achievements and his/her promise for the future;
- a summary of no more than 400 words detailing the candidate's professional qualifications including universities attended, employment history, volunteerism, etc.; and
- a 100 word statement from the nominee explaining how they would promote planning and the value of planners should they win this Award.
- a minimum of two letters of support from colleagues or peers.

The deadline to submit is: March 25, 2022.

Selection of Winner

Nominations will be accepted and reviewed by Directors of the CIP Board, with recommendations provided to the President for final selection.

The CIP President informs the successful recipient that they have been selected for the award.

Award Presentation

This award will be presented during the CIP National conference in Whistler, BC, July 2022. CIP cannot cover the cost of travel associated with accepting this Award in person.
